KEM employees BRAVE THE SHAVE

“It feels weird!” exclaimed KEM Journeyman Lineman Kevin Horner, as he felt his freshly shaved head. He then saw his reflection in the rearview mirror of a line truck. “It looks weird, too!” he said with a smile.

Horner, along with fellow KEM Electric Journeyman Linemen Jeff Gefre, Dale Nagel, Austin Ohlhauser, Dave Twardoski, and Member Service Representative Kirk Praus participated in Basin Electric Power Cooperative’s “Brave the Shave” event.

Brave the Shave is a fundraising and awareness event centered on helping families going through childhood cancer treatment.

The event raised $311,671, surpassing the $200,000 goal. Team KEM Electric raised $1,250, beating their goal of $200.

The money will benefit area families through two charities: Brave the Shave Family Fun and The Andrew McDonough B Positive (B+) Foundation.

This Earth Day, make the commitment to go paperless with your utility bill by using SmartHub, a Web and mobile tool that will help you manage your account from paying your bill to reporting outages. Earth Day is our annual reminder to step up and make a change that will better our planet, and one of the biggest steps we can take is reducing the amount of paper we use.
